New York, NY 10007

Re: Michael Seltzer v. National General Insurance Company, et al.
Case No.: 1:19-cv-11176-LTS-SN

Dear Magistrate Judge Netburn:

We represent Defendants National General Insurance Company, National General Holdings Corp., Roe and Associates and Matthew J. Roe (collectively "Defendants") in connection with the above-referenced matter. We write jointly with Plaintiff regarding the Court's instruction to submit a letter regarding the status of the case.

Both parties have consented to the arbitration of this matter. It is currently being arbitrated with the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"). We are currently conducting discovery and do not have an arbitration date yet scheduled.

We thank the Court for its time and consideration of this matter.

This action and all deadlines are further stayed for 90 days. The parties shall file a joint letter concerning the status of arbitration, either by February 2, 2021, or by the completion of arbitration, whichever comes first.

SO ORDERED.

SARAH NETBURN
United States Magistrate Judge
